You made a promise and You're coming back again

To be with You 'til the end of all time

One day, one day

Bm D/F#

I'll be with You, with You

One day, one day

Verse 2:

I know there will be a day

No more tears, and no more pain

But 'til it comes I will wait

I will watch, and I will pray

So all my life I will keep my lamp burning

And I will sing 'til I see You returning
